Central Coast AirFest Youth Art Contest Deadline Extended to September 13, 2024

Planes of Fame Air Museum Invites Young Artists to Participate in the “Flying Through History” Art Contest

Santa Maria, CA, August 30, 2024 – Planes of Fame Air Museum announces that the submission deadline for the “Flying Through History” Youth Art Contest has been extended to September 13, 2024. This contest offers a unique opportunity for young artists to showcase their creativity and interpretation of aviation history through art.

The contest is open to students in kindergarten through high school. Participants are encouraged to explore historical milestones in aviation and express their vision through various art forms, including painting, drawing, digital art, and mixed media. The theme, "Flying Through History," invites young artists to delve into the past and imagine the journey of flight from its inception to modern times.

Prizes and Recognition: Finalists will receive free tickets to the Central Coast AirFest September 21-22, 2024, and their artwork will be displayed at the event.

Submission Guidelines:

- All entries must be original works of art and adhere to the theme “Flying Through History.”
- Submissions must be received by the new deadline of September 13, 2024.
